

Thea Soti & Andreas Schulz

Spherical Sounds? Poetry? Backbeat? Absolutely! Thea Soti and Andreas Schulz combine it all in an extraordinary wonderful way when they take the audience on a journey through the sound-universe of a duo using only vocals and drums. Both of them have an impressive vita on their own, and together they become irresistible. Hungarian singer Thea Soti won the international composers competition JazzCompGraz and has sung with artists like Theo Blackmen and Lauren Newton. Andreas Schulz recorded with musicians of the German chart-breaking band Wir Sind Helden at the early age of 16 and is today one of the most remarkable young drummers in Germany. Both Soti and Schulz played hundreds of international concerts before they started playing together in 2013. The two had a short spell of intense song writing, after which she moved to Cologne and he to Leipzig and the two paused their collaboration.

Now Thea Soti and Andreas Schulz get back on stage together to present their absolutely worth hearing debut album with songs somewhere between Jazz, Pop and Avantgarde. A drumset, Thea Soti's extraordinary voice and one beautiful sounding wooden marimbaphone is all they need to build their unique world of the sound of a Duo.

Their debut album „Kilometres On Our Wrists“ will be released in 2018. It was recorded at the Monochrom Studios in Poland, where the sound design was done by Sam Toyoshima (Abbey Road Studios).
